Letter from the Director

Dear Loyal Supporters,

Thank you for your continued support of our efforts here at Fried's.

Kitten season is here! We are overrun with furry bundles of joy. The calls to take them in seem endless. Please tell all your friends and family the importance of spaying or neutering their pets. We can only take in as we have the space; right now we are at our capacity (400 total).

Repairs have been put on the back burner for now as funding is low and we have to concentrate on our vet bill, which is very high due to spaying and neutering all the kits that have been coming in.

Here is an update on my buddy, Scooter! I made a call to one of my human angels who only takes special needs kids. When I asked if she had any room at the Inn she said, "for you, of course!" So, Scooter and I packed up and went for a ride to Lafayette, Indiana. We were met with open arms and paws! She fell in love in an instant! His new brothers and sisters welcomed him as well! I stayed with him for a few hours watching as he made himself completely at home! I'm going to miss this little guy, but am happy knowing he is safe and well taken care of.

Thank you again for everything you do to keep us going. We couldn't do it without your generosity. It is needed more than ever as vet bills and operating costs seem to keep rising, as well as the constantly needed repairs.

If possible, try to make plans to see what we've accomplished (due to your help) with repairs so far by attending our Open House next month. I look forward to seeing you!

As always, all donations, great or small, are equally appreciated.

Sincerely,

Sandra O'Dell

Fried's Cat Shelter

From the Desk of Charlie, Jr.

Hi! Human Friends,

Hurray! Summer is back. How great it feels to bask in the sun by an open window and watch the birds and the butterflies do their thing. Of course it is not so good when it rains and the leaks in the roof let water drip into Gang. There have been roofers up there patching it, but it does not seem to help. I think we need a new roof. Can you help?

Now for some news from my brothers and sisters. We finally got to see Soupy. She was brought in one Sunday afternoon by an old couple who found her under their porch. Her head was stuck in a large soup can. Our humans had to cut her free with metal snips. Maybe they should have taken a picture of the "cat in a can", but they were just too worried about her to even think of it. Soupy was put in Lower and promptly disappeared in a corner close to the ceiling, refusing to come out. For weeks nobody knew if he/she was a male or female. Then one evening she came out and said: "I need help. I am going to have babies." The next morning our humans put her in a bin, and there she has been ever since with her 3 beautiful kittens. She is still scared of humans, but she is a good mother.

Our Open House is going to be July 22nd and 23rd. We are all excited about it. Please cut out the Open House notice in this newsletter and put it on the refrigerator so you don't forget to come and visit us. Our humans are scrubbing our living quarters, and my brothers and sisters are slicking down their furs to be ready for you.

That's all for today, folks.

'Til next newsletter,

Charlie, Jr.

along with your name and address.

PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE CLEARLY!

In Memory Of

In memory of Michael Minard.

--Mattie Minard

In memory of my sister's cat Custer, who recently passed away.

--Nancy Freiburger

In memory of my cat, Toonces. Toonces passed away on March 25th, at the age of 16. My husband and I adopted her from Fried's in October of 1990.

Toonces was my faithful companion. She sat in the bathroom as I got ready each morning and she slept next to me in bed each night. My yappy-smappy girl, I look forward to when we will meet again on the Rainbow Bridge.

--Elizabeth M. Konopka

In memory of Roseann Pershing, who loved all animals equally.

--Sharon L. Hansen

In loving memory of Marion Brzezinski and our pets.

--Elizabeth Brzezinski

In memory of my friend, Judy's, birthday.

--Gail Macewich

In memory of Jordan -- A wonderful dog -- always ready for a walk -- miss her so much.

--Ruth Ladewig

In memory of an abused cat, named Tina, who gave us so much love. And Perry and Grayson, two feral cats I grew to love.

--Marilyn J. Pletcher

In memory of my cat "Willy".

--Thomas A. Burke

In memory of my sister, Charlene Koranda.

--Dolores Cullen

In memory of my husband, Mike Colagrossi, who died on February 4, 2006. One of the many reasons I loved him was that he was as crazy about cats as I am. Daisy, Inky and I miss him very much.

--Jennie Strable

In memory of Cassandra - so much love from one little kitty.

--Rexanne and Steven Warner

In memory of our much loved Turf Cat.

--John and Judy MacLeod
